

Rodeo attracts top cowboys

One hundred and forty-five cowboys entered St. Albert Rodeo - and they included the top performers in the business. The entry boosted the established purse to $6,000, and because of the high entry the St. Albert Rodeo becomes one of the high-ranking events on the outdoor rodeo circuit. Last years entry was just under 100.

Arena conditions were good (thanks to the grand co-operation of the weatherman) but Reg Kesler's stock was tough and some of north America's champion riders bit the dust. Kenny McLean the 1967 all round champion was one who had a rough time.

Tom Bews of Longview, Alberta, was named All-Round Champ of the rodeo and scored a tremendous time of 3.4 seconds to win the steer wrestling event. Taber's Blair Wills was runner up with 4.1. In addition to the purse of $454.38, Tom was presented with the Bruin Inn saddle by Nick Kalynchuk - the second time for Tom to win this prized trophy. Wills took home - $347.46.

Benny Reynolds of Dillon Montana, was high point champion and winner of the Silver Buckle by Ross Trucking Service. Benny is a past All Round World Champion.

Marvin Joyce of Helena, Montana won the bronc riding event, scoring 73 points and purse of $342.56. Runner up was Winston Bruce of Cochrane, Alberta, with 68 points.

John Dodds of Ponakawon the bull riding event, scoring 71 points to edge out Dave Garstad of Veteran with 70. John's purse was $294.56.

The bareback riding was scored on two rides and Malcom Jones of Lethbridge with 137 was the winner, with purse of $162.49. Dale Trotter of Clarkston Valley was runner up, with 129 points.

Clark Schlosser of Stavely won the wild cow milking with a time of 17.0 seconds. Lorne Wells of DeWinton, Alberta, placed second with 18.6. Schlosser took home $191.40.

Wells won the calf roping event with a time of 10.9 seconds, defeating Kenny McLean and Bob Ragsdale tied for second with 11.2. Wells purse for the two events was $618.33.

Gerry Duce of Grannun won a close Ladies barrel race, scored on three rides, with a time of 48.0. She won $36. Julie Thorson of Calgary placed second with 48.1.

Rodeo announcer Bill Holt like stock contractor Reg Kesler, has never missed a St. Albert Rodeo. Bill, who hails from Lolo, Montana, and his wife Ramona have a soft spot for the St. Albert rodeo, and remarked on the wonderful treatment they get here. Ramona serves as rodeo secretary, working behind the scenes some ten hours a day. She is in charge of all the entries and statistics.

Other champion cowboys upset at St. Albert were Mel Hyland, reigning saddle bronc champ, Gil Garstad, reigning bull riding champ and Pat McHugh reigning wild cow milking champ. St. Albert rodeo also attracted one cowboy from New Zealand and 3 from Australia, including that country's current bull riding champion Barry Jones. Cowboys came from New Mexico, North Dakota and California as well. 26,000 fans and visitors were in town for the big event.

The bucking stock of Rodeo contractor Reg Kesler was plenty tough and with most of the reigning cowboy champs proving their mettle, the fans saw plenty of exciting action and top calibre performances at "Rodeo 107".

Churches co-operate on Family Life Program

Executive members of the St. Albert Ministerial Association who are working out arrangements for a Family Life Education program in St. Albert this fall: (from left) Father Levangle of the Roman Catholic Church, Pastor Olson of Lutheran Evangelical, the Rev. Jarvis of Braeside Presbyterian Church, the Rev. C. B. Dawkins of St. Matthews Anglican and the Rev. Musto of St. Albert United.

W. Jarvis.

The program, which is expected to attract wide interest, is being set up on the basis of two hundred participants for the six nights of operation. A similar program at Hillcrest, Edmonton, last year attracted considerable and widespread interest among local residents. These programs arise out of local concern to strengthen family life at a time when so many forces tend to threaten the stability of the home and when so many couples are seeking ways and means of improving the quality of family living.

Once again the Protestant and Roman Catholic churches of St. Albert are working together on a program of interest to all families here. The new project is being developed in answer to the needs of the many families in all churches who are concerned with problems of strengthening the family unit in a society which has a disturbing rate of broken homes. And in a time when many outside forces seem to diminish the influence of the family as the basic core of society.

In the fall a program of Family Life Education will be held. Sponsored by the St. Albert Ministerial Association, with the assistance of the women's groups of the churches and the co-operation of the Sturgeon Health Unit, the program is planned for each Tuesday evening in October.

Meetings will be held in the St. Albert Roman Catholic Church basement. Speakers and participants skilled in the area of family living are being invited to participate by the Family Service Association of Edmonton, and it is hoped that the program will receive support from provincial resources.

The following appointments have already been made. Co-ordination, the Rev. L. Musto; treasurer and registration, Mrs. Arlene Borgstede; hospital Mrs. Lois Folkins; publicity the Rev. C. Dawkins; accommodations, the Rev. C. Levangle; ushers, the Rev.

The Grandin Park Merchants used up 250 pounds of pancake flour and 275 pounds of sausages to an estimated 3400 hungry rodeo fans who were lined up at 8 o'clock Saturday morning. Gallons and gallons of coffee and tang were downed as well. The businessmen were aided in the serving by the Mayor and a number of councillors plus other volunteers such as Mrs. Ray Gibbon (back to camera in white stetson). Talk about a typical face on a young boy getting in a picture!

No trouble

The RCMP report a near trouble free Rodeo weekend with no problems of any account either on the grounds or downtown. This was in contrast to last year when they were called for a number of fights and disturbances and also had considerably more traffic accidents. Aside from a few speeding tickets and minor bumps there were no accidents to speak of this year.

Mayor Fowler announced this morning that Engineered Homes Limited have dropped their half-million dollar suit against the Town of St. Albert. The action pending by the firm of developers had been scheduled to come to trial during June. The Mayor has conducted a number of meetings with Engineered representatives over the past three or four months resulting in the resolving of this legal action at no cost to the town. Mayor Fowler will have a detailed statement on the settlement for the next issue of the Gazette.

Thursday afternoon the Father Jan mixed chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Kennedy, and group of guitarists working with Mr. Kaminski, will present a concert at Youville Home.

Young singers to entertain

The youngsters in Father Jan mixed chorus enjoy it so much that they are happily foregoing their recesses to practise for the concert they are presenting at Youville Home Thursday. The young singers will present a three part program featuring a group of songs from the British Isles, a group of Negro Spirituals and a group of Scottish numbers, under the title "They all call it Canada".

It's hard to say who will enjoy the concert most - the young performers who love a chance to entertain, or the elderly people who enjoy being with children and only rarely get the opportunity to welcome them.

St. Albert delegates to the District Kinsmen Convention held in Lethbridge June 6, 7 and 8 were Mr. and Mrs. R. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Irwin and Mrs. M. Mormyluk. The St. Albert Kinettes were presented with the Rose Bowl trophy, awarded annually to that club in the province which gives the most assistance to its auxiliary and provides outstanding community services. Mr. Rod Erickson was named District Deputy Governor at the convention.

The students of the St. Albert Protestant Kindergarten concluded the school year with a trip to Storyland Valley Children's zoo last Thursday afternoon.

The St. Albert Lady Lions wound up their activities for the '67-68 year with a "Hippie Evening" at the home of Lioness Maureen Swain. Prizes were given for the best costume and a Chinese Supper was served. Lady Lions will reconvene in September, when the new executive will be installed.

Despite a very chilly evening between 500 and 600 local people attended the big barbecue at the Ted Hole farm near St. Albert last Thursday night. Cars began arriving at 7:15 and the last one drove in at 10:30. Through an error it had been announced earlier in the day that the event had been cancelled and there was some further confusion as to whether it should be moved to the Community Hall due to the weather. However, one old timer was heard to remark that never in his long years of following politics here had he seen so many people from St. Albert at any political gathering.

Pony Wagons here to stay

Excitement mounted from the opening heat of the Pony Chuck Wagon races, first event of Rodeo 107, Friday evening, which saw one outfit plow into the fence and another fly through the gate into the maze of rodeo pens at the end of the arena. This team had a hard job to get straightened around and out in the open again. Another outfit missed a turn throwing the driver out, and the wagon overturned missing him by inches. The fast and furious action had the fans screaming and cheering by turns through ten chuck wagon heats and two chariot races. The Pinecrest Poultry Farm outfit from DeWinton, driven by Dan Gerlitz was the winner in 40.5 seconds.

The enthusiasm of the crowd assures a permanent place in the St. Albert Rodeo for the Pony Chuck Wagons. Another real crowd pleaser was the father and son trick riding act, which delighted fans at all three performances. It is no easy task to educate a Brahma bull but "Danger" a magnificent white animal weighing 1,500 lbs. went through his paces beautifully, climaxed by a jump through a flaming hoop. Wayne Cornish turned in some excellent Roman Riding on two white horses, the "Flying White Clouds".

Danny Bonko of the Gazette won the Media Calf Roping event in a close tussle with Jim Johnston of CHQT. The advertising make-up man is now the proud owner of an engraved plaque and a souvenir Hoss hat from the Kinsmen. Though the calf roping prowess of the media people is open to question, Danny was in fine company, with CFRN TV's "Mr. Music" Harry Farmer; plus the stations noon show host Ed Kay and newscasters Vic Sherman, and Mike Scott. CHQT also had Maury Banks of the Cavalcade program in the contest and Camrose radio CFCW was represented by Les Petry and Bill Baker, while Bill Rodgers, morning news broadcaster was entered for CJCA.

Co-chairmen Marshall Mormyluk and Fred Calkins and all their committee workers in the St. Albert Kinsmen Club can take a well deserved breather.

GIVE EDMONTON WEST A VOICE IN THE TRUDEAU GOVERNMENT

EDITORIAL

Hate flows in Canada too

The pamphlet referred to in this editorial has been brought to our attention from various areas in north-central Alberta where it is circulating. We agree that this is "Sick" literature, along with equally vicious anti-Jewish hate literature which seems to be concentrated more in Eastern Canada, and which responsible Canadians have been concerned about.

Close to home the narrow escape of Jack Erwin, Liberal candidate whose car was shot at in Red Deer and recent threats made on the life of P.C., Duff Roblin give Canadians cause for sober reflection. The following editorial is from the Toronto Daily Star of June 7th.

The Murder of Senator Robert Kennedy is a bitter consequence of the passions public figures can inspire.

Sometimes that passion is hero worship and is a kind of love. But when it develops or is promoted as hatred then it can become too great a burden for a tormented mind and explode into murder. Because three distinguished Americans - President John Kennedy, his brother, Robert and Rev. Martin Luther King - have died from assassins bullets in the past five years we have come to regard this hazard as peculiar to the United States.

But we would be foolish to ignore the fact that during the current Canadian Election Campaign of political hate-mongering is being conducted here.

Most of it is directed at Prime Minister Trudeau, the poison flows from anti-communist Zealots who are attempting by innuendo and half truth to link Mr. Trudeau with a Communist conspiracy. The most notable examples appear under the names of Ronald Gostick a pamphleteering professional anti-communist of Flesherton, Ontario and Igor Gouzenko one time soviet embassy clerk in Ottawa now living under an assumed name in a small Ontario community.

The outpourings of these two men are aimed particularly at ethnic communities of Eastern European background people who understandably have bitter memories of life under Communism. To them the suggestion that a man may have Communist leanings may create an irrational fear and hatred that could have tragic consequences.

Mr. Gostick in a wild assortment of half truths tries to paint Mr. Trudeau as a dangerous radical by asserting among other things that he studied under the late Harold Laski at the London School of Economics.

He might have added that so did the late President Kennedy and a number of prominent Canadians.

A document under Mr. Gouzenko name alleges that Mr. Trudeau may have been a Communist spy during his 20's. The basis for this vicious insinuation is the unsupported testimony of former Communist courier Elizabeth Bentley. During the 1950's Miss Bentley alleged that Prime Minister Pearson while attached to the Canadian Embassy in Washington passed vital information to the Communists through a young man a wealthy Canadian Communist. We are supposed to conclude presumably that "Communist sympathizer" Pearson was passing it on to "Communist Agent" Trudeau. Short of taking the matter to court - an action that publicity seekers Gostick and Gouzenko would welcome - there is no effective way at present to prevent this kind of poison from trickling into homes of families from Eastern Europe.

But it should be stamped on and exposed as vicious fraud by ethnic community leaders wherever it appears.

It is sick literature and if it touches a sick mind it could produce a national tragedy.

Recreation News

SWIMMING

The swimming pool continues to be popular with all age groups - especially the younger set. Since it opened last month, there have been almost 14,000 admissions!

A Red Cross Senior Leader Course (15 years and over) and an Instructors Course (18 years and over) will start on July 2. Registrations for these courses and all swimming lessons in July will be taken at the clubhouse (beside the swimming pool) on June 19 and 22 from 3 - 9 p.m. Regular Water Polo practices are held every Tues. and Thurs. at 6 p.m. and the Swim Club holds training sessions on Sundays, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 6 p.m. Anyone interested in either of these activities should enquire at the pool.

On Sunday next at 8:30 a.m. a Red Cross Examiners Clinic will be held. There is no fee for this clinic but anyone wishing to participate must have the Red Cross Water Safety Instructor's Award.

CRAFTS

The St. Albert Craft Guild under the auspices of the Department of Parks and Recreation, have temporarily re-located the three children's Ceramics classes from inadequate facilities in the basement of the community hall to the club house. Classes will terminate on June 29 for the summer months.

New facilities for the fall are hopefully underway and with badly needed support and increased participation, it is the sincere wish of the department to widen the field of cultural activities for all age groups. This would mean not only Ceramics and Copper Enamelling, but also such crafts as Batik, Metallurgy, Block Printing, Silk Screening for adults and teens as well as Puppetry, Painting, Pottery, Sculpture and other crafts for children. Complying of course with the demands and interests of the people of St. Albert, entire new horizons can be opened up in the creative and cultural fields of art which our town sadly lacks - in spite of the high percentage of artists residing here, not considering at this point the potential in our youngsters. Creative recreation is totally unavailable to our children in Edmonton until they reach the ripe old age of 12 years. It must be remembered too, that with a long waiting list, Edmonton children are always given priority.

The need for creative activity in St. Albert with our great number of children, increased leisure time and the predominating need for creativity within oneself in an increasingly mechanized world, is extremely apparent. It is hoped that with the support of the Craft Guild and all those interested, an attractive total environment can be created in St. Albert.

TENNIS

The courts continue to be a favorite centre of activity. They are being widely used for both casual play and tournaments and classes run by the Tennis Club.

A film on tennis will be shown in the gymnasium of St. George Simpson Elementary School on June 20 at 8:30 p.m. There is no admission charge for this film which is being sponsored by the Tennis Club and all Junior and Senior members are invited to attend. At Hillcrest Country Club last Sunday, St. Albert posted a 2-1 victory over the home team. On Sunday next, St. Albert will play host to the Hillcrest Club at 1 p.m. There will be a novelty adult doubles tournament on June 23 at 1:45 p.m. when each player will draw 7 different partners.

On Thursdays from 9 a.m. till noon the ladies of the Tennis Club have the use of the courts and Junior members can play from noon till 4 p.m. On June 25 at 4 p.m. there will be try outs for the Junior Inter-Club team.

There are still openings in the Ladies Beginners Class which will start on June 20 at 10 a.m. and not on July 2 as previously announced. The Junior class has been cancelled. For information regarding instructional classes, phone Judy Wood, 599-8696.

Club memberships are available at the Courts on Sundays at 2 p.m. or from Jack Harding, phone 599-7313. Fees are as follows: Family $10.00; Married Couple $7.00; Adult $5.00 Juniors $2.00.

Evening Classes arouse interest

About thirty people attended a meeting recently at Sir George Simpson Junior High School to hear the tentative plans of the separate school district for evening classes during the coming school year. Dr. J. W. Chalmers, district superintendent, stated that whether such courses would be offered depended on the support forthcoming.

He explained that consideration is being given to programs in four areas: grade XII examination subjects, high school commercial courses, programs for small business, and short-term general interest or hobby subjects. The first two require at least 60 hours of instruction and will run for the fall and winter. Successful completion will prepare students for grade XII departmental examinations or qualify them for credits towards their high school diplomas. The latter two do not lead to high school standing and will run probably for ten weeks only, two hours per session. It is hoped to offer one series of courses before Christmas, beginning in the last week in September and ending the last week in November. The second series is expected to start about the middle of January.

Leisure or "fun" courses as Chalmers termed them, may include everything from ceramics to ethnic cooking, creative writing to sewing, small engines to woodwork,

Guest Soloists for Service

For the quarterly communion service of the United Church taking place this Sunday at 9:30 a.m., the senior choir, under the direction of Lillian Upright, will sing Thiman's cantata, "The Last Supper." Soloists will be Ron and Diane Nelson of the Namao district.

Ron was raised on the family farm near Namao where one of his early teachers was Mrs. Phyllis Akins Kittlitz, who is presently a member of the choir. He studied voice at the Royal Conservatory in Toronto where he and Diane met. Both sang professionally in the east before returning to Namao to live. Ron will sing the Christus role in the cantata, with Diane as narrator. The male voices in the choir will portray the disciples.

The Communion Table of the United Church is an open table at which members, ad-

An effort will be made to provide courses in any field where enough interest is expressed, which probably means a minimum enrolment of 15 per class. High school evening classes and small business programs receive financial support from government grants but other programs must be self supporting, at least as far as instructor's remuneration and supplies are concerned. The school district will cover the cost of accommodation, caretaking, advertising, etc.

Persons interested in any evening classes are urged to get in touch with the Separate School Board Office - (599-7766).

herents, and visitors are all welcome. You are asked to note the early hour of the service which begins at 9:30 a.m.

PARISH MEETING:

Last Sunday morning members of the parish decided by a large majority to investigate the possibility of combining with another parish in order to strengthen the financial status of the parish. The meeting, which was attended by representatives from the Edmonton Diocese, was called to give parishioners an opportunity to consider the parish problems regarding finance and also housing for the rector. Considerable attention was given to the problem of the rectory. The meeting favoured the sale of some portion of the church site with a view to releasing funds for investment in a rectory. These proposals are being passed to the diocese for further consideration in the hope of action in the very near future.

Conservative Association.

Pembina CANDIDATES

JACK BIGG
CONSERVATIVE

Mr. Bigg emphasizes three positions he feels are important as the election campaign goes into its final week.

He said Quebec is not interested in joining the USA where they would be swamped. They prefer to remain and grow along with us.

Mr. Bigg actively supports the Conservative policy of developing a program under which Canada can produce more wealth so we can afford social reform at home, and still be able to help those countries less fortunate than ourselves.

He stands also for guaranteed income over the years, but on the principle of encouraging people to help themselves.

Accident claims boy's life

A tragic drowning accident in St. Albert last Friday evening has saddened the entire community. Robert Erwin Kimball, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kimball, lost his life when he tumbled from a raft into a pond west of Albert Lacombe school. A companion, watching from the bank, ran some 800 yards home for help and his father rushed to the scene immediately. A good swimmer he began diving in the area near the raft in search of the boy. Meanwhile a phone call brought the RCMP to help, but all efforts were in vain.

This is the first time this pond has been the scene of any kind of accident, and while the mounties frequently get calls from residents concerned for the safety of children on the Grandin Road pond or the Sturgeon River, they have never had any calls about this pond before. The RCMP conducted dragging operations with the assistance of a local volunteer diver and the body was found within an hour in an area about 50 feet from the raft. The extremely murky water made the task more difficult. The pond was discovered to be over 25 feet deep in the middle with uneven bottom. Sgt. Reinhold emphasizes the danger of the Grandin Road pond and the river also, where it is possible to sink a pole easily six feet into the muck, a real hazard even in shallow water.

ANNE ROMANIUK
NDP

The New Democratic Party is the champion of the people of Canada; truly the only party dedicated to safeguard the rights of the Canadian people. For this reason I am a candidate representing the New Democratic Party.

I believe that Canada's vast resources and the benefits derived from them should be controlled by Canadians - and utilized for the benefit of Canadians.

I believe every Canadian should be assured gainful employment. This can be done by means of job creating and job stimulating measures as proposed by the New Democratic Party.

I believe that a Guaranteed Annual Income combined with Social Services necessary to ensure a standard of living compatible with health and self-respect.

I believe that every child born in Canada should be assured of obtaining an education as high as he/she can reach regardless of his economic or social position.

I believe that Canada's farmers should be paid equitable prices for the products that they produce.

I believe that Canada should be a united sovereign nation with a strong Federal government - guaranteeing the civil rights of all Canadians.

I believe that in order to be a sovereign nation, Canada must recover her economic independence, that is Canadians must be free to plan and create the kind of economy best suited to our needs.

I believe that Canada's native people must have the right to make their own decisions.

I believe that every Canadian is entitled to adequate

PAUL CHALIFOUX
LIBERAL

Election Day will soon be here. Most of you have had an opportunity to compare the leaders and their statements of policy.

My first concern is that you vote as you wish. Because our democratic system depends on your participation on election day.

Secondly, I hope many of you consider me favourable. I feel my youth, vigor and education will help me give good representation for Pembina in the next government.

Specific promises I cannot make, because a member cannot always deliver. But I am committed to the interest of Western Canada and would voice this concern in my party and in the next parliament.

housing at a reasonable price.

I believe that legislation should be enacted to prevent drug companies from extorting exorbitant profits from a segment of the population that can least afford to pay.

I believe that a just tax system can be instituted as proposed by the Carter Taxation Commission.

I want a government ready to serve the needs of a modern industrial economy with policies to cope with our housing crisis, the rising cost of living and the unfairness of our taxation system. The New Democratic Party has the plan for this government. I challenge you to join in building a society as free and as generous as the land in which we live.

I am confident about Canada and determined that Canada's national problems will be solved.

It's Frontier Daze Time Come to Morinville this week-end

The welcome mat is out for crowds of visitors expected in Morinville this weekend. Get up early and take in the main street breakfast Saturday morning before the big parade. Lieutenant Governor J. W. Grant MacEwan will lead it off from the form-up area at the M.D. office, and seven marching bands or more are sure to spread parade fever, while the varied floats add color, and comedy entries provide the laughs.

For baseball action and midway fun it's on to the grounds for children from six to sixty. Booths will be filled with hamburgers, hot dogs, chips and popcorn, ice cream and pop and many other goodies. Don't miss the costume promenade at one o'clock.

In fact food is a big attraction for folks at Frontier Daze. International foods from many lands - Texas Bar-B-Q and Fried Chicken - everybody can find a favorite meal.

See the Indian Dancers, Mayors' Shoot-off and Square Dance Jamboree. Catch a greased pig or buy a slave. Check the action at the bandshell variety shows, or get in on the horseshoe pitching or bingo games. There's something going all the time.

1,000 pounds of meat will be served at the Texas Bar-B-Q before the crowning of the Queen ceremony at seven o'clock. Then it's time to get ready for a big night of dancing - choose between the Teen Dance with the 'Night Walkers' and the Adults Ball with the 'Twilight Serenaders' - either way you're in for a night of lively fun on the dance floor.

Special Roman Catholic and United Church services will be held Sunday morning. Grounds open at noon and the Saddle Lake Indian Pow-Wow goes at one o'clock. Baseball finals, bandshell entertainment, go-go marathon award announcements, Firemen's water fight - there's lots of things to see and do. Plus Fried Chicken at five o'clock.

Frontier Daze celebrations will close in a blaze of fireworks at 10:00 p.m., Sunday evening.

RCMP plan considered by County

Letter from the superintendent F. W. Joinson, administrative officer of the R.C.M.P. K division, Edmonton was read to the council at their May 28 meeting. It stated that it is the department's intention to establish a detachment headquarters in Morinville and preferably in the municipal office if acceptable to the council. Copies of plans and specifications in respect to proposed police accommodation in the municipal office were attached to the letter and submitted to the council for its consideration. The total cost of renovation as called in the plan would be paid by the federal authorities on amortization basis over the period of the lease. The letter suggested a rental period not in excess of three years if possible.

Council moved to lease to the R.C.M.P. detachment, space area as suggested for a period of five years at the rate of $2.75 per square foot, such to include utilities as heat, light, water, sewer and janitor services, subject to the following conditions:

(a) that the entire cost of renovations of this office to accommodate the R.C.M.P. detachment be paid by the federal authorities, such would also include architects and engineering fees.

(b) that if the entire cost of renovations is to be amortized over the period of the lease, the council would request that interest be paid on the balance of the capital expenditures for such renovations.

Vote recorded against - Mr. G. Wilson.

Mayor's Shoot off

They may not be the fastest guns in the West - but the Mayors' of North Central Alberta have gotta be among the best sports to be found anywhere! And a Bang-Up deal it's going to be when they meet for the Big Frontier Daze Shoot-Off at 1:30 Saturday afternoon!

Morinville's Art Stapleton is going to have his hands full defending his reputation against such well-known "quick-draws" as Edmonton's Mayor Dantzer, Gibbons Joe Mabbutt, St. Albert's Dick Fowler and Leon St. Martin of Legal, Mayor Elmer Brennan will shoot it out for Bon Accord and Mayor Kulak for Stony Plain, along with Fort Saskatchewan's Ben Knowles and Spruce Grove's Mayor Peel. George Hunchak of Redwater Mayor Doherty of Westlock, William Bredo from Barrhead and William Roberts, of Onoway, along with Athabasca's mayor have all indicated their intention of shooting it out for the 'Silver Tray' put up by the staff of the Royal Bank.

County Council Briefs

All county councillors and the secretary treasurer attended the meeting May 29th sponsored by the County of Strathcona to discuss the Hanson Report on Annexation.

Council moved to submit an application to the director of surveys for cancellation of an old road diversion under road plan 21 AV, in NW 23-55-22-4. This diversion is no longer needed for public traffic and application will request the road land in question be reverted back to the adjacent property owners.

A letter from the City of Edmonton said an old Ukrainian home was available for the cost of removal from the former Pioneer Village. City was informed the county is not interested in this building.

Secretary was authorized to purchase one desk for the general office at best price obtainable.

A letter from A.A.M.D. requested council to inform A.G.T. if the municipality is doing any ditching, road construction, deepening of cuts through hills etc., where buried cable exists. Free cable location service is available.

Council accepted the resignation of Mr. O. Sinclair as fire warden of the M.D. Mr. Sinclair works in the city and is unable to issue fire permits.

At the Bandshell

"Variety" is the key to the Bandshell entertainment at Frontier Daze this year. Guest performers from Legal, Bon Accord, St. Albert and Edmonton will join Morinville's own artists (such as the "Goldseekers") in an ever-changing program with shows to please every taste.

Sgt. Hockady and Wee Willie (ventriloquist) will be out from Edmonton, along with The Country Gentlemen and Escape Artist Bob Lang with his spectacular fire cage act. The Sherwood Variety Dance troop are another well known group you won't want to miss.

At 8 p.m. Sunday the Bandshell goes international with traditional folk songs and dances from European and Eastern countries passing in review. France will be represented by Rachel Bulger, Japan by Michi Miyagishimi. Vincent Scivoletto will perform Italian style and the Maria Benes group for Hungarian entertainment. Hong Mar and the Chinese Theatre Group will appear and a local group will represent the Ukraine. For original Canadian entertainment the Alexander Band is billed and there are more.

For a favorite good time still with us since Frontier times, don't miss the square dance jamboree on Saturday at one p.m. when Don Krebs is the Caller!

Morinville's Mayor Art Stapleton trusts Father George Primeau to support the ladder, while he puts the finishing touches to the Frontier decor of his hardware store, in preparation for the town's big annual celebration of Frontier Daze. Yvonne Leduc and Anne Kryskow - two mighty attractive ambassadors for the festivities show off the attractive red and white poster advertising the big event. Gazette Photo.

At their regular meeting May 21st, trustees of the Thibault school district heard a letter from the Minister of Education advising approval of Raymond Chauvet as joint teacher of Legal and Thibault school districts.

The Sturgeon school district advised that the existing agreement for instruction covering students in grades one to nine will terminate June 30th. A letter was sent expressing regret at the cancellation of the tuition agreement.

At the same time Dr. Hall, Mr. Everitt and the Sturgeon division will be sent copies of the letter to Legal school district.

Mr. Gerard Lavigne, who is studying for his Bachelor of Education degree, will be advised that bursaries are still available on a yearly basis.

The board moved to send a letter of thanks to Morinville Centre caterers, for the excellent meal and service provided at the Science Institute. Mr. Fitzpatrick gave reports on the science institute, track meets and Mother's Day program.

The five cadets who sold the most tickets for the trip to Honolulu received lapel pins. They were Lac's, L. Brada, D. Bodnar, N. Kreway, Cpl. T. Walker and W.O. 2 T. Carleton. At their regular meeting May 17th, county council endorsed a resolution on the assessment of farm dwellings as presented at the convention of the Alberta Association of M.D.'s and counties. Whereas the assessment exemption granted farm buildings is being exploited as a means of avoiding fair and equitable taxation; Resolved that this convention go on record as favoring the assessment of all residences in rural municipalities, but that taxes be levied on either:

- (a) the assessment of the residence or,
- (b) the assessment of the parcel of land on which the residence is located or,
- (c) where a farm unit consists of more than one parcel of land, the total assessment of the land which comprises the farm unit, whenever it is the highest assessment."

Bon Accord girl weds city man

Mr. and Mrs. Delay cut the wedding cake in traditional manner at the reception held in Bon Accord Community Center.

Bon Accord United Church was the scene of a pretty spring wedding on Saturday, June 8th, when Miss Susan Louise Chubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Chubb of Bon Accord exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Patrick O. Delay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Delay of Edmonton. The Reverend E. Miller performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a sleeveless gown of heavy ivory silk taffeta trimmed with chantilly lace. Over this she wore a fitted jacket with lily point sleeves; a long train fell from the waist. Her shoulder length veil of silk nylon net was held in place by a headpiece of white orchids and bows. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses. Her jewelry a gift of the groom, was a matching set of necklace and earrings featuring a pearl drop set in white gold.

Her two bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Chubb and Miss Marjorie Delay, sisters of the bride and groom respectively. They wore identical dresses of mid green peau l'elegance, featuring short puffed sleeves and white laisy trimming. Large white laisy on pale green net were worn as headpieces. Each carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The flower girl, Patricia Chubb, younger sister of the bride, was charming in a deep pink floor length dress of floral sheer over whispering taffeta. Her A-line dress had short sleeves and was trimmed with a ribbon sash. Her headpiece was a circlet of pink daisies and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums - a miniature of those carried by the bridesmaids.

The groom's attendants were Mr. Rick Francis and Mr. Larry Grocholski, both of Edmonton and the ushers

Namao

Open house was held on Saturday, June 8th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Akerman to commemorate the coming of the Harold family to this district 80 years ago. Many friends, relatives and neighbors gathered to visit with the Harold families and spent a most enjoyable day.

The district was saddened to hear of the passing of a wonderful old timer, Mrs. Rosa Samis who was 93 years of age. Born in Rogers Nebraska, she came here as a bride of the late John Samis in 1895 and has lived here ever since. The sympathy of the district is extended to the Samis families.

Cemetery day will be held on June 22. All persons with plots are asked to attend and bring lawnmowers, axes and other tools.

The Namao U.C.W. group held a joint meeting on June 10th at the home of Mrs. Dianne Nelson. Three charming Japanese ladies who came from Japan during the past year were present, and told the members about Japanese life and customs. They showed their native dress, films of Japan and performed the traditional tea-pouring ceremony.

On June 12th, a school awards program and farewell tea was held in the Namao school. Academic and athletic awards were presented. After the program a tea was held in honor of the grade nine students who will leave our school next year.

were Mr. William Chubb and Mr. Michael Delay.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Verna Morris and a solo, "The Wedding Prayer" was sung by Miss Barbara Lewis.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Chubb chose an ensemble of aqua ottoman with white accessories and deep pink roses encorsage. The groom's mother wore a dress of printed sheer in pastel shades complimented with a hat of blue silk straw and shoes and gloves in white. She also wore a corsage of pink roses.

ROAD CROSSINGS

Letters were received from Northwestern Utilities and Allied Land Services both requesting that certain conditions as established on road crossings be amended, Northwestern Utilities for a proposed 12" gas pipe line from S.E. 30-55-22-4 to NW 7-56-21-4; and Allied re the Peace River Pipe Line Co. Council referred both requests to the public works committee to discuss with Mr. Ch. Weir.

Dame Gas Co-op Ltd., subject to the following conditions: (line is planned in Twp. 56-55-54).

1) All lines parallel to the roads will have to be set a 100 feet in, from the road.

2) That all crossings be open cut and will require heavy wall steel or casing from fence to fence.

Mr. Ch. Woods attended the meeting in relation to the roofing problems and conditions on the public works shop. He stated that he firmly believes that the problem of extensive condensation and moisture is with the heating and ventilation system. Council gave him permission to contact the contractor who installed this heating system and work some arrangements to remedy the problem. The council also granted permission to Mr. Woods to repair all the doors at the public works shop, in order that they may be opened more easily.

Estimates for the installation of water and sewer in the A.S.B. building were by the above noted firm. Total cost to include labor for two men, ditching with back hoe and material $698.96.

The quotation was referred to the public works committee to carry out investigations on cost and they have the power to act accordingly to the best interest of this municipality.

UNDERPASS WEST NAMAO

The secretary treasurer informed the council that he had a lengthy discussion with

Mr. Ch. Weir on the above noted underpass. Consultation was also made with Mr. Sanden, P. Eng. of the bridge branch. It was the feeling of the above mentioned that an application for assistance be submitted to the Board of Transport Commissioners, to defray the cost of improving the approaches to the existing underpass on the basis of 80% commission railway fund, 12 and 1/2% municipal and 7 and 1/2% railway company. It was felt that the existing approaches to the underpass are a public hazard to the traffic. Or, as an alternative, if the above request is not approved, that a new underpass be erected on the original road allowance which would eliminate the road diversion. Mr. Weir and Mr. Sanden are to make further inquiries and investigations on the above matter before submitting an application with all the required plans of survey and other material to the board on behalf of this municipality.

Moved that the council authorize Mr. Ch. Weir to proceed with further inquiries and if found feasible to submit an application to the transport commission for assistance to improve the approaches to existing underpass or apply for a new underpass on original road allowance.

FROM THE BIG COUNTRY... Alberta

Meet a Sly Dog

Despite the fact that wolves are rarely seen in our Mountain National Parks, except in the northern portion of Jasper, hardly a year passes without some visitor reporting them — particularly from the Banff region. With due deference to these observers, chances are that the animals they spotted were not wolves but their cunning cousins, the coyotes.

Mind you, there could be justification for such errors. While the average wolf is nearly two to three times as heavy as the coyote and taller, a young wolf might weigh in the region of just 50 lbs. and stand 2 ft. at the shoulder — a size comparable to the largest coyote.

If you've never seen a coyote, look for what appears to be a medium-size dog, buffy grey in colour with some touches of black. Common throughout the province, the beast grows up to 2 ft. high and 40 lbs. in weight. He has a sharp-pointed foxy nose, large erect ears, and a long bushy tail which he holds down while running.

A comparative newcomer to this region of North America, the coyote has nonetheless made himself firmly at home. The animal is said to have originated in the western plains of the United States and the uplands of Northern Mexico, expanding its range with the coming of the Spanish in the 16th Century. Hunted for its fur, shot, snared and poisoned for its attacks on domestic livestock, it was driven north into this region as late as the 19th Century.

The coyote combines the cunning of the fox with the stamina of the wolf — attributes which have enabled it to adjust to advancing civilization better than any other large predator. It continues to thrive, despite being widely hated and vigorously hunted and it is difficult not to admire its persistence and adaptability.

Basically, the reasons for the coyote's survival are not difficult to find. It is prolific, averaging seven pups to a litter... and it is omnivorous, which means that it will eat almost anything. In some regions, it is protected as a controller of rodents but such prey provides only a part of its diet. Birds, reptiles, wild game, eggs, grasshoppers, insects, carrion — even an occasional member of its own kind — all are consumed with equal enjoyment.

Remarkable Hunter

The coyote is a remarkable hunter. It hunts in pairs or packs, sometimes even with an animal of a different species. Two coyotes in pursuit of a ground-hog have been seen to act in the following manner. While one coyote will make an obvious approach on the ground-hog lair, its partner will make a circuitous approach from the rear and stealthily conceal itself. Seeing the obvious coyote — which might make some half-hearted attack — the ground-hog promptly ducks into the safety of his hole, allowing the concealed coyote to rush forward to a hiding place within a few feet of the entrance. When a safe period has passed, the ground-hog peeps out and sees the first coyote retreating, having seemingly lost interest. As it emerges to bid a cheeky farewell, the little animal presents an easy victim for Coyote No. 2.

Coyotes have used similar techniques on antelope herds; one coyote concealing itself behind the herd while its mate panics the antelope in the required direction. Speed is another of the coyote's many aids to survival. The animal has been clocked at 43 m.p.h. and can probably manage 45 m.p.h. under stress. It is faster than all but the swiftest dogs and would rather run than fight.

Keen of sight, smell and hearing, it appears to know whether or not a man is carrying a gun. An unarmed man can often get within stone-throwing distance of a coyote before the beast makes off at an unhurried pace.

The coyote is notoriously difficult to poison. Some suggest that this is because once it realizes that it has taken poison, it contracts its abdominal muscles, ejecting everything from the stomach. This may, of course, be the result of the irritating action of the poison but the result adds up to the same thing — immediate self-induced first aid.

Endurance and Stamina

Its endurance and stamina are legendary. Coyotes have survived fearsome gunshot wounds, the loss of limbs and flesh, even the loss of a jaw.

Many farmers are irritated by what appears to be the coyote's studied insolence. Stories are told of hidden traps being dragged into the open and snapped shut with a twig, and of coyotes burying poisoned bait.

Certainly, the animal has little respect for man. It uses our roads and railways without hesitation, providing they're free of traffic. In Jasper National Park, in fact, the railway provides what is probably the best area to observe coyotes, as they tend to stay in the brush elsewhere.

Whether you love it or loathe it, the coyote bears observation. Any animal that can survive centuries of intense and calculated hunting and still manage to thrive under arduous conditions can probably teach us mere mortals quite a lot.
